

Dale L. Davison, Ph.D., is dean of faculty and a professor of accounting at Thunderbird School of Management. As Dean of Faculty, Dr. Davison oversees faculty hiring, performance, and development. His areas of expertise include global finance and accounting and issues in taxation. Dr. Davison has co-authored three books, including a widely used financial accounting textbook, “Financial Accounting.” Among the industry’s leading journals, his research and writings have appeared in Management Accounting, Journal of Taxation, Arizona Business and Multinational Business Review.

Before joining the Thunderbird faculty, Dr. Davison was a partner in the office of Deloitte & Touche. He has accepted business-accounting assignments around the world, including assignments in the U.S. and Canada, Germany, Belgium and Russia.

He was an associate professor of accounting at Arizona State University from 1976 to 1980 and an assistant professor of accounting at the University of South Carolina from 1973 to 1976. Among his many awards and honors, Dr. Davison won a College of Business Teaching Award at the University of South Carolina in 1975 and at Arizona State University in 1978. He also was honored with the ASU Accounting Circle Outstanding Teacher Award in 1980. He has twice won a Thunderbird Student Government Outstanding Teacher Award (1994, 1996). He won a Deloitte & Touche Outstanding Tax Teaching Award in 1982 and 1983. Dr. Davison earned his Ph.D. and MBA at the University of Georgia. He was awarded his BS at Northeast Louisiana University (now the University of Louisiana-Monroe) where he was the College of Business Honor Graduate and the Louisiana Society of CPAs Honor Graduate.